UN experts agree that the systematic restriction of the human rights of women and girls in Afghanistan could amount to gender apartheid.

Sanaa University, Yemen, reportedly introduces gender segregation policies.

Iran denies healthcare to women who refuse to wear the hijab.

Twenty years on, the Maputo Protocol 2003 is progressing women's rights in Africa.