

Women living under muslim laws
النساء في ظل قوانين المسلمين
Femmes sous lois musulmanes
Transnational Feminist Solidarity Network

Internship and Fellowship Announcement

Digital Communication (Website and Social Media)

About WLUML:

Women Living Under Muslim Laws (WLUML) is a volunteer transnational feminist solidarity network that promotes human rights and gender justice and equality for people whose lives are shaped, conditioned, or governed by patriarchal and/or authoritarian interpretations of Islam. For over thirty-five years, WLUML has worked with feminist movements to break women's isolation and build our collective power.

Our work aims to bridge the gap between scholarly advancement and discourses on women, human rights and gender equality and the interested public to promote plural democracy. Working with WLUML, the intern/research fellows will develop research and collaboration skills and gain practical experience as members of a passionate and engaged team while supporting the rights movements in Muslim societies around the world. As a feminist think tank, we believe sound research sharing, truthful news, and debates are the basis of advocacy for social change.

Internship Announcement: Legal Research, Social Media, and Digital Communication :

WLUML produces regular research-based and scholarly publications in the form of books, articles, reports, and videos, organizes webinars and workshops and more (<https://www.wluml.org/books/> and <https://www.wluml.org/dossiers/>). Our website and social media content are geared toward reaching a broad audience.

We are looking for interns in the following areas to advance our work

We are looking for interns/fellows to support our work in the following areas:

- a) Inter/researcher in the legal field to map out the legal procedure and implication of registering a Canadian chapter/branch of the WLUML organization (and possible other organizational modifications).
- b) Social media is the most important means of publicizing our work. We are looking for an intern who can publicize and promote our research, publications, and other activities through Linked-in, and perhaps Instagram, Twitter, and Facebook.
- c) Inters/research fellows interested in the research and publication, particularly in the areas of sport, art, and music.

Required General Skills:

- Good knowledge of the Microsoft Office suite
- Proofreading and Excellent attention to detail (for the publication applicant)
- Strong command of the English language
- Interest in Law and legal procedure (for the legal internship applicants)

- Proactive and self-motivated with the ability to work independently and work as a team worker.
- Good knowledge of design tools such as Adobe Photoshop, Illustrator, or others would be an asset.

Good command of English. Ability to read and speak other languages, such as Arabic, Farsi/Dari, Pashto, Urdu, Turkish, or French

Location: Remote

Number of Hours: approximately 8 to 10 flexible hours per week

Remuneration: Currently, as a volunteer organization, we are unable to provide remuneration for our interns and fellows; however, we are open to supporting their funding application with other funding organizations.

Supervision:

Prof. Homa Hoodfar and Sara Lopez Izquierdo will supervise the post-holder.

Deadline: Applications will be reviewed on a rolling basis starting 30 November 2023 and continue until the positions are filled. The position can start from January 2024

To Apply: Please send your CV and a short cover letter to indicate your areas of interest to wluml.networking@gmail.com. For any further inquiries, please email us at hoday.wluml@gmail.com. Please make sure to put "Internship program 2024" in the subject heading.